

Biggest Ship in Leadership

@jeffgpresents

1. What do you think are some of the most important things in student leadership?
2. Where would you rank student well-being and everyone feeling like they belong as key parts of student leadership?
3. Were you surprised about the conclusions of the Harvard Study of Adult Development? Why or why not?
4. This talk focuses on student leadership, but how would focusing on relationships apply to leadership in the business world, in the community, in a family, on a sports team? Where else would focusing on relationships improve leadership?
5. Explain how a focus on relationships and serving others will have a positive impact on your effectiveness as a leader. How will it help you obtain some of your “measurable goals”?

Looking for more? Read about the Harvard Study of Adult Development in the Harvard Gazette.